

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH ASSOCIATE (Level 1 or 2) / SENIOR RESEARCH ASSOCIATE (Level 1 or 2)

Location: Tucson, AZ, US, Chicago, IL, US, or Folkestone, UK (this is an office-based role)

Duties:

Work directly with senior team on patient-centered qualitative outcomes research (clinical outcomes assessment) studies to better understand humanistic clinical benefit within the context of observational or clinical studies. This role offers the opportunity to work locally and globally on patient-centered research studies across multiple therapeutic areas. Measures include patient-, clinician-, and observer-reported outcomes to understand health-related quality of life and symptomology impact of disease on patients.

Skills:

- Conduct literature reviews across multiple therapeutic indications
- Assist in the preparation of study documents for qualitative studies
- Assist with conducting qualitative studies
- Familiarity with outcomes research field to support new drug development
- Willingness and ability to conduct patient interviews (some travel required)
- Experience with coding patient transcripts
- Desire to work on a small team in a fast-paced, client-focused environment
- Able to work on several projects at once, multi-task, and manage competing demands
- Able to manage work time by using time efficiently, work quickly, and meet productivity standards
- Able to work on several projects at once, multi-task, and manage competing demands
- Able to manage work time by using time efficiently, work quickly, and meet productivity standards
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Able to follow instructions for delegated project tasks and complete tasks correctly and on time
- Produces quality work by demonstrating accuracy and thoroughness; looks for ways to improve and promote quality; applies feedback to improve performance; monitors own work to ensure quality
- Demonstrates attention to detail
- Strong planning and organizational skills
- Strong interpersonal skills including able to resolve conflict, maintain confidentiality, and open to other's ideas and tries new things
- Demonstrates teamwork by balancing team and individual responsibilities
- Ability to assess own strengths and weaknesses within job role and strives to continuously build COA knowledge and skills; shares expertise with others
- Is motivated to learn and sets and achieves challenging goals
- Able to perform job responsibilities using a computer for long periods of time each day
- Passion for conducting research and the organizational skills to support that passion
- Demonstrates professionalism, i.e., reacts well under pressure, treats others with respect and consideration, accepts responsibility for own actions, and follows through on commitments

European office:
Unit 68, Basepoint
Shearway Road
Folkestone, Kent, CT19 4RH, UK
+44 1303 661026

www.clinoutsolutions.com

United States office:
1790 E. River Road, Suite #205
Tucson, AZ 85718 USA
+1 520 325 9510

- Desire to have good work life balance (work hard and enjoy life outside of work)

Education:

- A minimum of a Bachelor's degree in psychology, epidemiology, public health, outcomes research, health sciences or related areas is required (Master's preferred)
- A minimum of 1-3 years in conducting or supporting ongoing research efforts
- Strong qualitative skills; experience with NVivo or similar software program

Levels:

- COS offers various levels within this position commensurate with qualifications and experience.

COS celebrates diversity and inclusion. As such, we strive to bring passionate individuals together from diverse backgrounds to pursue our mission and vision.